We are saddened by the loss of our dear sister and ministry partner, Paris Christadonai (Chardpaison). Heaven is now blessed to enjoy Paris' devotion to her Savior and Lord, Jesus Christ, and the heavenly worship of Him who called her home now adds another beautiful voice to their chorus.

Paris was committed to the vision of finishing The Great Commission in Thailand. She was singularly devoted to this purpose, even while battling stage 4 breast cancer. She set aside her former professional ambitions and made the work of training pastors and church leaders her priority in the last years of her life, leading T-Net Thailand from a small but committed first generation to a second and third generation of fellow trainers who will also train others. Paris was an integral part of launching a disciple-making, church-planting movement in Thailand. Praise God!

We now get to celebrate not only Paris' life and ministry, but the graduation of her fellow first-generation peers. We wish that she was able to be with us to celebrate this milestone accomplishment, but each graduate knows how tirelessly Paris worked to ensure that each student who met graduation requirements would be able to finish their Field Project Reports and complete their training.

Paris was so thankful that God could use her for this kind of ministry, and He prepared her for this incredible season with experience and talent in translation, administration, and teaching. Paris did the work of at least three people in her role as Director of T-Net Thailand: curriculum translation, live translation during trainings, acting as a key trainer for second and third generation training centers, leading promotional events for T-Net Thailand, organizing and creating structures for administrative needs, managing student records and assignments, and much more.

We thank God for gifting T-Net Thailand with Paris and thank Him for giving her rest and an end to her suffering. She embodied the words of the Apostle Paul from 2 Timothy 4:7, found of the Teleo University seal, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." She truly bore her cross and followed Christ to the end.

Our friend and dear sister, we will miss you until we meet again in heaven.
